

Spiritual Evolution.

The gradual development of your essential energy, the structure is explained in the essay 'Contemplation', now how to begin that transformation. 'al-isl m. The word Islam means the total surrender of oneself to 'DDG, All h (Not God). An adherent of Islam is known as a Muslim, meaning "one who submits to the concepts and principles as expressed comprehensively within the Qur'an, (this means the ritual of Shahada is not the creation of a Muslim), but the implementation of Qur'anic guidance as a practical life style, this has the effect of priming the self for actualisation.

This would be the first transformation of your organic electromagnetic pattern; this revolution of thought is unfortunately rare and gradual. I'll attempt to explain this concept.

I've often thought throughout my life, why is such an outwardly beautiful girl, attracted, involved or in a relationship with such a repulsive character, it has made no sense to me, puzzling and perplexing my mind, each observation of this phenomenon reminding me of its reality, and its irrationality.

Yet upon realizing the truth, my confusion was removed, what had appeared illogical on the surface was in fact simple, logical and natural.

A natural consequence of their level of evolution of mind, once you conceive of the reality of the transformation from state to state each person is experiencing.

The ignorant wish you to believe falsely opposites attract, when in truth they are attracted to an equal, they don't want an opposite, but somebody equally matched to their organic electromagnetic energies station of evolutionary development, so the girl although beautiful, is un-evolved existing at a very base level, obsessed with the superficial, oblivious to all but her base impulses.

One male manifestation of this torpid state of energy, would be the visible base desires and emotions, one of these been violence toward a woman from her partner.

So we can understand why in modern industrialised societies, so many women are beaten by their sexual partner.

The first thing to note about a male (I won't say man) who beats women, is the firm belief he is superior, and they are of little value to him beyond sex and slave labour, secondly only a cowardly male who is filled with fear, will beat a woman, a male far less than a true man, even within his own subconscious mind he knows he is less than a man, so he wants to dominate and control the woman, to feel power over her, seeing her as less than an equal, simply as chattel, being at an insignificant level of evolution, becomes violent, he's fearful of everything, and a coward, a coward will make a great effort to superficially display bravery and attempt to intimidate the weak.

Classical Arabic has a word, Iblis, meaning a disappointed being who fails to secure happiness in life; the unreasoned emotions of anger, hatred, violence, aggression, bullying, etc., any raised and uncontrolled emotion would be Iblis, resulting in the emotions of sorrow, self pity, depression, loneliness, misery etc., a force of nature that is consumed with base thoughts. Many people are transformed into that force; but Iblis is also a coward, selfish, greedy, lazy and ignorant, the stronger the transformation of the Rue (Divine energy) into the negative form, the greater the transformation into Iblis.

The force of Jabrilæ is the knowledge and tranquillity of truth, all truth, universal knowledge, and the calm wisdom hidden within each human being, accessible through the pineal gland, this force must be cultivated and developed to evolve your elemental being, and you must deny Iblis as far as you are able, to achieve a balance of the forces, the middle road, to exist in Salaam.

'Mastering others requires force while mastering the self requires strength'; a little wisdom from Buddhism.

The woman he beats is invested in that abuse, not until her energy develops above this base animalistic misery can she evolve beyond this, and then she faces the problem of escape, often escaping from one abuser to another if she has failed to evolve, and of course it is always possible to devolve your energy.

Other example would be infidelity and perversions, self obsessions, avarice taken to insane intensity, etc.

These are born from a person that is rooted in base desires, someone that has not evolved above the very basic station of development, considering only their own selfish pleasures and inclination, slowly and steadily converting their rue into Iblis.

The more tenacious the perversion, the greater the sovereignty of Iblis is in authority, the more the rule of base desire, and the rejection of Jabrilæ (infolded light, the highest knowledge and influence), becomes evident.

From this it is easy to understand why one person is attracted to another of appalling character, when it would be obvious to all they should shun that person, their actions were rooted in their level of development within themselves, they move forward only when they have evolved into a new state of being. The propensity of energy to convert from one form to another is the nature of the Divine energies; the Qur'an explains it in the extreme, taking the two opposite perspectives to accentuate the line of reasoning.

24:26 Evil women keep company with evil men, and evil men keep company with evil women. Likewise, men and women of good character are companions to one another (9:71, 112). The latter are innocent of whatever people might say about them. For them is the absolution of their imperfections and honourable provision.

The vast majority of the human race exist at a level of an energy vampire, they spend their life draining or contaminating the energy pattern of others, driven by ego, they boast, back bite, complain and tell stories in an attempt to compete in what they see as a competition, viewing others as rivals, and themselves existing in a material world where accumulation of material assets would be the prime objective and the gauge of success, indulging base desire, in an attempt to feel better about themselves they devalue and deride others, boosting their vain self esteem, this behaviour is only indoctrination from birth to death, they are conditioned to never think, existing on involuntary responses, making them non entities. This thoughtless behaviour is described in the Qur'an, at length.25:44 Or do you think that most of them really hear and use their reason? Nay! They are but like cattle. Nay, they are farther astray. (The cattle at least follow the Divine Laws instinctively).

How do you evolve your electromagnetic self, your Divine energy to an ever-higher development of qualities, so transforming the properties of your energy?

So lets look at thought, as nothing else is relevant.

Emotional thought is the key to transformation, we think through emotional imagination, which in turn extracts its knowledge from the time pathway it has travelled, a pathway that is well trodden within the mind, this generates habitual and expected patterns of thought, and so in turn actions, this been interpreted as a character, a personality, yet if you consider this carefully, you are simply expressing the habitual conditioning of your time pathway. Another way to view this would be shepherds, these life experiences have formed firm beliefs, whether right or wrong, and you follow these shepherds (beliefs) blindly.

The habitual pattern of life, each person wanders through, is given many method of correction within Islam.

Two records of your actions exist, the first is your time pathway held within your organic electromagnetic field. The second is the energy of time itself, the field of Allah (Not God); nothing has happened, right from the first instant of creation, not even the actions of a speck of dust in the remote blackness of deep space, that has escaped this in-eradicable record.

So is this really you?

You have a spark unique within nature, potentially powerful reason.

We are a field of pure emotional energy, infused with consciousness, governed through beliefs (shepherds), which are generated potentially through reason. Iblis is a force generated from the physical nature of the symbiotic reality we inhabit, a necessary and import force, a force we can not refuse completely, a force that controls us often, it is the base desires of life, hunger, thirst, lust, pain, along with base emotional states.

7:11 We created you, then shaped you, then told the angels, "Be of service to Adam! And they agreed to be of service, all but Iblis. He was not of the subservient. [Take a panoramic view of your common origin. Life began as a single life cell from hydrated inorganic matter (23:13). We made you Adam (Homo sapiens, male and female). And We made the angels (the Universal Forces) subservient to you. Satan or Iblis, your own rebellious desire, refused to submit to your higher controls of judgment.]

Jabrilæ is the infolded light, the angels or natural forces, in place to generate an inbuilt Divine knowledge, Allah connects you every night you sleep, woven into the very fabric of your physical existence, a natural system of enlightenment open to all, taken by so few. The Divine spark of consciousness is instilled with free will through the infolded light observed by your pineal gland, the knowledge of Jabrilæ, this information exchange is processed by your reason held in configuration to the Earths electromagnetic field, for optimum operation.

The choice to rise above your base desire and evolve to a higher plain is only available if you have more than your base desires to access, therefore your free will is a force generated from this inbuilt Divine knowledge, Not God takes you every night into the information exchange of the manifold, it remains open to you whether you use the information given or reject it.

10:94 (O Messenger). If you ever think whether the Revelation We send to you could be an inspiration from your heart, ask the angels who bring it. They read it before you read it. Verily the Truth has come to you from your Lord. Be not of those who waver.

Iblis gives you the power of base desire, it is without doubt impossible to master this force of nature, an example of this would be lust, to remove the base desire to want to have sex, would be self deception, the desire would still exist even if you maintained your abstinence.

So Iblis is nothing except your inbuilt natural inclinations, as all other animals, instinct, and your ignorant base desires.

&lsquo;Knowing others is wisdom while knowing the self is enlightenment.&rsquo; Buddhism.

12:53 "I do not claim that I am angelic, with no ego or desire. The human &ldquo;Self&rdquo; is not invincible against temptation. It is my Lord&rsquo;s Mercy that mankind are in control of their behaviour. Verily, my Lord is Absolver of imperfections, Merciful.&rdquo;

The messenger himself expresses imperfection within himself, nobody can be perfect, this is a struggle, you are tested for the challenge of true existence, and the adventure is just beginning.

2:97 (They are displeased with Jabrilæ for bringing Revelation to a gentile Messenger. 2:90) Say (O Messenger), &ldquo;Who bears a grudge against Jabrilæ?" For he it is who has revealed this Qur&rsquo;an upon your heart by Allah's (Not God's) Will. And this Revelation confirms the Divine Origin of the earlier Revelations, and it is a Beacon of Light and a glad tiding for all those who acknowledge it.

2:98 Whoever bears a grudge against Allah (Not God), and Allah&rsquo;s angels and Allah&rsquo;s Messengers, and Jabrilæ and Mikaa'eel, must know that verily, Allah (Not God) opposes the rejecters of the Truth.

From this guidance it is made plain, when you act in opposition to Jabrilæ your energy is in disharmony, a feeling of discord, everyone has experienced this feeling, some say it is regret, or conscience, but it is the result of acting in defiance of Jabrilæ, a natural dissonance of your organic electromagnetic field.

It is far simpler than many would have you believe, if a thing is simple it is easy for all to accomplish, if it is perceived as difficult, it is easy for a few, to make usurious money from their self proclaimed expertise.

A single foundational principle of all realities is clear, all reality is created, transformed, expanded or evolved, without exception, from the inside out.

The test of this reality is to transform your mind, you could describe this as transforming your energy, or your spirit, or your essence, or your organic electromagnetic field, or your inner being, but these descriptions all convey the same understanding, your emotional thought is the key, to understand that is the first step to achieving your ultimate goal, of passing the test, or enlightenment as the confused new age catch phrase expresses it. This intellectual process through the receiving every time you enter R.E.M sleep, of divine inspiration awakens, and liberates the human mind, permitting man&rsquo;s inner qualities to develop and grow, so that he may lead his life on a spiritual plane far above the ordinary level of evolution.

But this guidance is freely given, however you must want Jabrilæ, and you must live with a belief of truth, searching it out and confirming it is correct, above all else, so you should not believe in delusion, and wilful ignorance, the deceptive easier path, Iblis, as this is only the manifestation of base desire, deceiving you into false belief and action.

32:13 Had We so Willed, We could indeed have imposed Our Guidance upon every human being (like other creatures without free will). But the Word from Me will come true &ndash; I will fill Hell with people, rural and urban all together.

Many references are made to Salaam, a middle path within the Qur&rsquo;an, a balance, we cannot escape Iblis, in truth this base desire is an integral and essential part of each person, Iblis must be exposed to the full light of knowledge, dragged forth, out of confusion, and understood for what it is, Allah (Not God) again explains for us that base desire is the opposite of free will. 36:66 Had We so Willed, We could have made them devoid of Vision that would make them unaccountable for whichever way they went. (Without free will like the Animal Kingdom).

36:67 And had We so Willed, We could have degraded them driven by instincts, powerless to advance or retreat in their potentials.

Allah (Not God) explains further with this parable (narrative comparison), that your base desires keep you from following the guidance of the Qur'an, because Iblis, your base desire fills you with ignorant pride and rebellious arrogance, believing that your base desires are far more tangible and obvious, that your selfish advantage is more important than higher motives. 38:75 Said He, &ldquo;O Iblis! What has kept you from being submissive to that which I have created with My Hands? Are you too proud or are you of the rebellious?&rdquo; 38:76 Iblis replied, &ldquo;I am better than he. You created me of fire while you created him of clay.&rdquo; (Emotions are fiery in relation to the cool 'clay' of higher controls). 38:77 Said He, &ldquo;Go forth from here, for, behold, you are condemned.

38:78 And My rejection is on you until the Day of Judgment.&rdquo;

You may doubt what I describe as correct, conditioned and indoctrinated, or steeped in religious dogma, historical confusion or blind superstition, but the Qur'an describes in the final line, the force of Jabrilæ. 92:5 And so, he who gives and walks aright - (92:18-19) 92:6 And makes his life a manifest image of benevolence - 92:7 We will indeed ease his way to the Ultimate Ease. 92:8 But he who withholds and thinks himself self-sufficient becoming careless of others - 92:9 And makes his life a manifest image of denial of goodness - 92:10 We will indeed ease his way to hardship. 92:11 And what could his wealth avail when he himself falls! (69:28, 111:2). 92:12 Behold, it is for Us to show you the Way
